It is a pleasure to bring you this edition of the Community Connections magazine. At a time of increasing costs for New Zealanders and increasing expectations on community organisations to deliver more impact while reigning in budgets, we invite you to take a look at some of the articles that offer useful tips and advice for individuals and community.

We have had 256 registrations at the time of writing for our online Auckland Region Funding Fair on the 3 August – back for the second time this year with new speakers and new funding organisations. You might discover some new ideas or opportunities you had not previously considered. The webinar will be available to all those who register. You can also take advantage of our very affordable funding directory, available for download or in print form, from our ANCAD website.

Working together has never been more important. The Auckland Community Accounting and Community Accounting Aotearoa programmes exemplify this with its strong partnerships with Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand, RSM, Massey University, the Department of Internal Affairs, ACE Aotearoa and Foundation North. The Steering group representing these organisations bring a wealth of perspectives and sound advice to the implementation and development of the programmes. Geoff Andrews of ANCAD leads these two programmes, along with Pale Sauni and Glen Hill. We are delighted to have such an experienced staff team working with our community organisations.

During July, we engaged in an extensive recruitment process for the Community Development Lead role that will commence in late August. We had some wonderful candidates apply and appreciated the time they put into their applications. Finally, we were fortunate to be able to appoint Sarah Thorne, who brings a wealth of community development experience and her knowledge of communities on the North Shore. We look forward to her joining the ANCAD team.

We warmly invite you to attend our postponed ANCAD AGM on Wednesday 17 August; an opportunity to meet with our community organisations and partners. We are hosting light refreshments over lunchtime and will hear from Jan Rutledge QSM, from De Paul House, who will be speaking about the community housing sector and their work in transitional housing on the North Shore. This will be followed by our Annual General Meeting.

This month is also a great time to update or renew your membership with ANCAD. For more information and for our current member benefits please contact us or check out the information on our website. ●

ANCAD ACA/CAA steering group

By Geoff Andrews

*Auckland Community Accounting and Community Accounting
Aotearoa Programme Lead*

The ANCAD Auckland Community Accounting Steering Group was established in December 2017 to bring key stakeholders together to guide the development of the Auckland Community Accounting and Community Accounting Aotearoa programmes.

Partners and supporters on the Steering Group include; ANCAD, Massey University, Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand, Foundation North, Department of Internal Affairs, Charities Services, Auckland Council and RSM.

At their July meeting the members received an update on the development of the Role of the Treasurer seminar to be offered by ANCAD in 2022 and the Community Treasurer Programme (CTP) developed by ANCAD in consultation with Massey University. A pilot for the CTP will commence in August 2022.

At each meeting members of the Steering Group provide an update on trends and issues in their particular areas. They also receive a report from the Programme lead Geoff Andrews.

ANCAD is extremely grateful to all members of the Steering Group for their volunteer support and contribution to the ongoing success of the ACA programme and other developments under the ACA banner.

The Steering Group meets a minimum of two times a year. The group met in July at the B: HIVE in Smales Farm Business Park. ●

5 minutes with Pale Sauni

AUCKLAND COMMUNITY ACCOUNTING COORDINATOR (PASIFIKA)

What is your work/professional background?

My background is Social Work and I have spent 10 years in management, 12 years in Pacific mental health services and 14 years in Pacific education.

What motivated you to be part of the Auckland Community Accounting work with ANCAD?

During my many years of community work with Pacific churches, Pacific community services and community provider services, I was introduced to ANCAD (through Geoff Andrews) as an opportunity to assist these Pacific providers to be able to account and manage their financial situations. I felt that ANCAD would provide the capability needed to build confidence and accountability to and for the Pacific communities, in terms of their finances and fiscal responsibilities.

What is important to know about how non-Pasifika people can engage and work effectively with Pacific families, groups and individuals?

I think the sense of always being open to new learning and a willingness to be proactive in the practice of principles of correct pronunciation of Pacific names and terms, appreciation of ethnic Pacific differences between the Island groups and remembering that Pacific have a collective focus, specific languages, spiritual guidance and family orientation to include our families in the Pacific Islands.

Who or what inspires you?

My Mum is 95 this year and she is my inspiration. Having brought us over from Samoa to NZ, she instilled in us the purpose of education and wellbeing.

There is a Samoa proverb that says, 'Tau mai na o pua o ula, aumai na o auga o aute, se'i mai na o muia'au o la'au, e osi ai le taulaga' which means make do will not do any more for Pacific communities. When we come to work and serve with Pacific peoples we 'Bring only the most beautiful of hibiscus, bring only the freshest of frangipani, bring only the young palm frond and together we give sacrifice to the gods.' This inspires and motivates me.

What is your favourite season of the year and why?

Summer always. Sports, music, fresh air, outdoors and healthy living.

Best thing to cook in under 30 minutes?

Taro and chop suey!

What is at least one thing you couldn't do without?

Music. It's the fluid that makes the world go around and certainly plays a significant part in teaching, learning and living.

What are you looking forward to over the next one-year period?

Good health, a solution to a Covid world and generation, improved understanding of learning and a much, much, better understanding of the digital and social media platform-way of the future! ●

5 minutes with Glen Hill

AUCKLAND COMMUNITY ACCOUNTING COORDINATOR

What is your work/professional background?

I trained in South Africa as a Chartered Accountant with a professional firm and then moved into mining, industry and commerce. On immigrating to New Zealand 24 years ago, I got involved in contracting in many organisations and eventually worked for companies in software development. I also got involved voluntarily in a charity as their Treasurer (which is where I met Geoff Andrews). My last full time role was with a not-for-profit operating in the banking and insurance sectors. I have since retired

What motivated you to be part of the Auckland Community Accounting work with ANCAD?

When Geoff started with ANCAD, he mentioned the development of ACA. I thought it was a great idea as not-for-profits was one area hardly covered in the university courses. I offered to assist him in any way I could and have enjoyed my involvement in lecturing, mentoring and more recently organising teams.

Who or what inspires you?

People who put aside their own needs and are able to understand the needs of others and work to supplying the healing.

What is your favourite season of the year and why?

I love the long days through summer due to the daylight saving.

Best thing to cook in under 30 minutes?

A stir-fry, because you have so many options.

What is at least one thing you couldn't do without?

My family. They give one a stability in life and challenge one often with new directions.

A great summer adventure for you?

Would be going to the Northern Hemisphere in our winter to tour. ●

UPDATE: JULY 2022

Emergency hubs

By Madison O'Dwyer ANCAD

During an emergency, first responders aren't the only ones who can help. Communities come together to support one another and solve problems.

A community emergency hub is a place where communities can come together to support one another and make collective decisions on how best to recover from a disaster.

Emergency hubs might be a gathering point for residents looking for a safe space to rest and recover, a source of information, a connection point with agencies and a place to allocate local resources to coordinate responses. For example, during the Papatoetoe Tornado in 2021, neighbours rallied to make short term repairs to protect homes and clear the roads of debris. Volunteers also made and delivered hot meals.

Emergency hubs can be places like churches, sports clubs or community halls. In Devonport, the Emergency Response Group has identified five emergency hubs across the peninsula: Stanley Bay Bowling Club, 1st Devonport Scout Den, 6 Squadron Air Cadets Hall, Wharetoi and the Holy Trinity Church. The Group is now holding meetings at each of these venues to assess facilities and make connections with the community groups that run them.

You can help your community prepare for emergency situations too! Visit www.resilientauckland.org.nz to find out how. ●

The Auckland North Community and Development (ANCAD) Professional Development Programme (previously known as Five Good Ideas) is now known as LiiFT AOTEAROA.

LiiFT AOTEAROA seeks to both inform and inspire – that's why there are two 'i's in LiiFT.

ANCAD's vision is to see community and For Purpose (NFP) groups LiiFTED and strengthened through offering relevant and affordable capability-building courses, presented by top, professional consultants and facilitators, just as we have been doing for many years now, with the fantastic support of The Tindall Foundation.

The two 'i's in LiiFT also represent, in imagery, two stick figures and stand for people partnership and collaboration as key ways of fostering growth, harmony and resilience.

The remaining letters 'LFT' stand for 'Learning for Today' as we seek to respond to community need with relevant and timely courses as well as looking to the future in supplying the latest, helpful resource and training.

Our hope is that many will benefit and build on the good works they are already doing for the sake of community in Aotearoa.

LiiFT Aotearoa sessions in July

In July there were a number of community leaders who attended ANCAD's bi-monthly leadership series on Zoom. The speaker was Garth Nowland-Foreman from LEAD Centre for Not For Profit Leadership who spoke on the subject of Learning from Life Cycles

One person who attended this session said they learned more about growth, sustainability, mitigating pitfalls, as well as learning from the other organisations in attendance.

We initiated a session on Zoom with the topic The Incorporated Societies Act 2022: What you need to know with consultant and presenter Carol Scholes (Overview Management). This was well attended and everyone thoroughly appreciated the very clear content. One person's feedback summed up everyone's attitude, "This session was so informative and has made me feel very confident and relaxed about the changes to the ISA."

For the month of August we have organised a workshop on Great Barrier Island for the community there, which has always proved very beneficial to the more than 20 who attend. We have other sessions on zoom this month to do with being a great board member, Chair, Treasurer and office holder, plus a session and workshop on funding options.

Check out the programme and the website at www.LiiFT.nz for more information. ●

Auckland Community Accounting (ACA) welcomes requests for accounting assistance from NFPs for this free and confidential service.

This service is for Community groups including sporting, cultural and social service agencies and the service is provided by accountancy students from Massey University, supervised by Chartered Accountants.

Students will assist with your finances, help you understand the treasurers role and guide your organisation through the new annual reporting process.

They will also help you understand the financial responsibilities of a Board or Committee, point you in the direction of resources that can assist your organisation and help you work out how to utilise your accounting software more efficiently.

The students will gain valuable real life experience in the wonderful NFP sector and at the same time they will be giving back to the sector and developing a better understanding of the work of NFPs and the wonderful contribution volunteers make to the sector.

If you just want to find out more or want to sign up please email me at geoff@ancad.org.nz or give me a call on 021 054 6240 or 0800 426 223. ●

Volunteer with the Citizens Advice Bureau!

Citizens Advice Bureau Browns Bay has been helping people know their rights for nearly 50 years. They have been busy helping clients across a whole range of issues, and have found that people in the community have appreciated having someone they can contact, who is willing to take the time to listen and help them work through their options.

Their service is delivered from their Glen Road Bureau by 20 volunteers each week, and they are currently looking for new people to volunteer and help their team serve the community. Every volunteer brings a variety of skills and life experiences with them and is able to add value in their own unique way. Their volunteers are passionate about ensuring that everyone, regardless of who they are, has access to their rights.

The Citizens Advice Bureau is proud of our team of 2500 volunteers nationwide, and values what each person brings to the organisation. Here at Browns Bay they are always open to welcoming new volunteers from all backgrounds.

CAB volunteers agree the role is incredibly rewarding as on any given day, they could be asked about anything from tenancy rights, locating a support group or having documents signed by a JP, to finding out whether a person is entitled to a benefit and more.

CAB volunteers are dedicated to giving back to their community and undertake an intensive training process that ensures they are ready for queries and issues, and providing appropriate options based on research. They typically volunteer for four hours per week in the Bureau with at least one other volunteer.

So, if you want a rewarding volunteer role where you can make a real difference to people's lives, please contact the Browns Bay Citizen's Advice Bureau on 09 479 2222 and ask for Tony, the branch manager, or email brownsbay@cab.org.nz for more information.
